SHIP-GENERATED WASTE

The disposal of oily, liquid ship-generated waste in accordance with MARPOL I and domestic waste in accordance with MARPOL V is arranged directly by WFG or by the agent. In this case, disposal in accordance with MARPOL I is undertaken at the expense of the ship.

AVV*	Term	Container or condition

*AVV (German List of Wastes Ordinance)

The disposal of hazardous waste, cargo-associated waste, cargo residues and wastewater in accordance with MARPOL IV is to be arranged directly by the ship and shall be at the ship's expense.

Solid hazardous waste (e.g. workshop waste containing oil, packaging with adhesive elements, fluorescent tubes, batteries, etc.) may be accepted in some cases. There will be no additional travel costs in these cases. If a vehicle is required due to the type and volume of hazardous waste, all costs for this shall be borne by the ship. A list of local waste disposal companies is available from the port authority.

In the event of misuse of the port reception facilities, such as unauthorised unloading of waste in the port area of the district port, unreasonable delay in the disposal process, late or incomplete/incorrect registration, the District Port of Rendsburg may bill the party liable for the costs incurred.
